B. Reading Comprehension (16 Marks)

Read the following passage, then answer the following questions below:

Indians are the first people who grew potatoes. Then Spanish brought potatoes to Europe, and travellers brought them to America. Potatoes are fourth on the list of the world's important food. Today, Americans eat up about 140 pounds of potatoes per person every year, while Europeans eat twice than them .

One of the favorite ways to eat potatoes is potato chips. An American chef named George Crum created the first potato chips on August 1853, in New York. He sliced the potatoes as thinly as possible, making them too thin and crisp. People loved them, so he opened his restaurant and offered a basket of potato chips on every table.

In United Kingdom crisps are what people in the United States call potato chips. Ketchup-flavored chips are popular in the Middle East. and chicken-flavored chips are popular in Mexico. There are different flavors from around the world .

Americans consume 2–4 billion pounds of potato chips every year and spend more than $7 billion a year on them. Most of them love it.
