I decided to spend the holiday with my uncle in China. Our tour began on the first of July. When we first landed in Beijing Airport, we were warmly welcomed by my uncle's friends. We stayed at a hotel near the University of Communication in the capital city. China is a wonderful country that has a large population. It is the first country in the world in the number of people that's why the streets and roads are so crowded. Mostly, people use bicycles and motorbikes to move.

We enjoyed our tour there so much and did many lovely things. There are a lot of famous things such as; the Great Wall, caves, temples, forts, mosques and museums. We also enjoyed the nice Chinese food and various festivals. At the end of our tour, we enjoyed shopping and bought some presents for our families and friends.
