B. Reading Comprehension:(14m)

Read the following passage, then do as required below:

Anne lived in a big house near a lake overlooking the woods. The house had a big garden. Every day she would go to the garden and play with her dog; Oscar. Oscar was a police dog and used to work with Anne's dad; Jack, at the police station. Jack and all the other policemen loved Oscar very much. He was fast, smart and loyal. He would always protect them and help them to catch thieves.

One afternoon, Anne and Oscar went to play in the garden. While they were playing a fox suddenly jumped at Anne. She was really scared and started to scream so Oscar barked and ran after the fox. Anne quickly went back inside the house to hide.

Anne waited for Oscar but he didn't come back. She was worried that he might be lost. It was getting dark and it started to rain, so Jack put on his coat, took his umbrella and flashlight, and went looking for Oscar. After few hours Jack came back with Oscar. They were wet and dirty. Oscar ran after the fox inside a hole, but when he caught the fox, he got stuck inside. That's why he couldn't come back home.
