Read the following passage, then answer the questions below:

Long ago, people lived happily under the rule of a king. He decided to travel on foot to meet his people. After several weeks, the king returned to his palace, but he had pain in his feet. He said that the roads weren't comfortable and that they were very stony. He was worried about the people who had to walk along those roads as it would be painful for them too! He ordered to cover the roads with leather.

The king's friends were upset to hear his order as it would cost a huge amount of money. Finally, a wise man came to the king and said that he had another idea. "Instead of covering the roads with leather, why don't you just have a piece of leather cut to cover your feet?" The king was surprised by his idea. He ordered a pair of leather shoes for himself and requested all his people to wear shoes too.
